

The background is a stylized landscape composed of several horizontal layers of color with irregular, torn-paper-like edges. From top to bottom, the layers are: a dark blue sky with white stars; a light blue sky with small orange speckles; a pinkish-red layer; a teal layer; a dark teal layer; a brown layer; and a dark green layer. In the center-right, a brown rock formation rises from the brown layer, featuring a blue and white fan-like pattern on its side.
