TREADWELL

You sit on the street once known as Treadwell's Passage; once a bustling (and somewhat notorious) hub of Oxford. Home to a fish hawker, shoe maker, scavenger, needlewoman and other such characters, it was a boisterous meeting place full of life and variety.

In 1851, it was coined 'one of Oxford's greatest nuisances', due to its debauched reputation, which involved a court summons to settle the street's fate. However, in 1912, when Arthur Pearson opened the much-loved Boswell's department store, the passage was reborn.

Today, it is home to our restaurant, which bears the same name. Untraditionally British, you can expect the unexpected at Treadwell. Playing with local, sustainably sourced produce and the diverse influences which have shaped Oxford, it is as much an homage to the past as it is a bold step forward.

Please note, we do not accept cash payments and are card only.
A discretionary 12.5% service charge will be added to the final bill.
