

WHO ARE WE?

Food is the heart and soul of South Asia. The cafes and restaurants are the arenas that build family and friendships. The food, well that's the cement that binds people together. Our mission is simple; To Create Fantastic Food and Memories. Our food is based on the journey Babuji took all those years ago, the food he loved, the food that still lingers in his memory. We make home food, nothing fancy just good honest home cooking.

So what shall I order? Mix it up, share it, food is about sharing, bringing people together. So the answer is to go against the grain and try dishes you've never heard of.

STUFF YOU NEED TO KNOW

Eating with your hands is awesome... (But only clean hands)

That's right, we fully embrace eating with your hands not only because it's a historic and cultural thing, but because we believe eating is a sensual activity and touch is part of the experience along with the taste and aroma of the food, so don't be alarmed when you don't see cutlery next you! Try it, see our 'how to eat with your hands' guide and join in the Babuji way of eating.

NOTE: Cutlery is available upon request (although frowned upon)
