BODEGA GARZÓN BALASTO

MALDONADO, URUGUAY

Bodega Garzón is a family-owned winery in Maldonado on the Atlantic coast in southern Uruguay. They pioneered viticulture in this area over 10 years ago, and have since become the standard-bearer for premium wines from Uruguay. In November 2018, their pioneering status was recognised by Wine Enthusiast with the ‘New World Winery of the Year’ award.

In 2007, owner Alejandro Bulgheroni invited consultant winemaker Alberto Antonini to visit his 700 hectare olive farm situated between the small town of Garzón and the beach. With stunning views, rolling hills and olive trees, Alberto was taken aback by its beauty, likening it to his native Tuscany. Following proper analysis of the soil and conditions, it became clear that this site had huge potential to produce premium wines. Originally they planted Tannat (Uruguay's flagship variety) and Albariño, as Alberto identified clear similarities between Galicia and Garzón in terms of the cooling Atlantic breezes and well-draining granitic soils. Over the past 10 years, these rolling hills have been planted with olive groves and vineyards, with 12 grape varieties now planted on the estate. It is a patchwork quilt of 1,150 individual plots of around 0.2 hectares in size, each plot carefully chosen for a specific variety according to its soil and microclimate.

CORAVIN
THE WAY TO ENJOY PREMIUM WINE BY THE GLASS

Drink a glass of red wine while your companion drinks white. Pair your wine with your dinner courses rather than limiting to the same bottle. This is done by a small, thin needle that penetrates the cork and through pressure decants the wine. The pouring needle also replaces the removed wine with Argon. It's non-toxic, odourless and non-flammable meaning it will have no affect on either you or the wine.

By not removing the cork the wine stays as fresh as if no liquid had ever been removed. The bottle is still secure and no spillages can occur as the natural properties of cork reseals itself.

All in all, it's a very clever piece of kit!
