HOUSE OF LORDS

Selection of Teas

House of Lords Blend

Designed by, and blended for, the House of Lords exclusively, A Pinch of Spice combines a selection of fabulous Indian black teas from the famous gardens of Assam, Darjeeling and Nilgiri into a robust and flavourful medley with rich, malty notes and a full bodied finish. The addition of smooth Kenyan black tea married to a pinch of spices giving the blend a warming and invigorating quality as deep and dark as the liquor in the cup.

2nd Flush Assam

A summer-harvested black tea from Langharjan Estate in Assam, India.

A rich golden liquor, a well-rounded and malty breakfast tea which is lively and intense.

London Strand Earl Grey

A citrus twist on the classic Earl Grey, Keemun black tea from China.

Vibrant with zesty lemon and rich bergamot blended with a smooth black tea to ease the palate.

2nd Flush Single Estate Darjeeling

A glorious summer black tea from the prized Chamong Estate in the foothills of the Himalayas.

Tawny and bright, with an intense but sweet aroma and lingering fruity after tones, a champagne of teas.

Long Jing

One of China's Ten Great Teas, a roasted and pan-fired green tea from the southeastern Zhejiang Province.

Pale yellow liquor provides sweet, strawberry notes that give way to a roasted popcorn flavour.

Grey Dragon Oolong

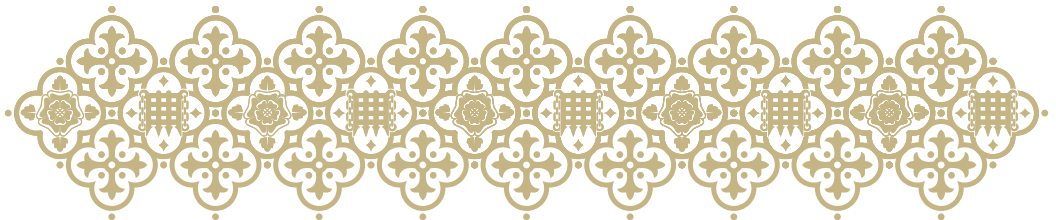

An incredibly unique Dewata Estate oolong, made from only the youngest, freshest buds of this West Javan tea.

Silver needle white meets aromatic oolong as a clear amber liquor with refreshing, peachy flavours, smooth and silky.

Lemongrass and Peppermint

Uniquely fragrant lemongrass blends with fresh peppermint to provide an uplifting, caffeine free, infusion.

Soft, sweet citrus flavours with subtle minty notes that embolden a relaxing fragrance.
