HOUSE OF LORDS

Selection of Teas

The House of Lords Blended Tea

A Pinch of Spice is an invigorating and refined combination of Indian black teas from across the famous regions of Darjeeling, Nilgiri and Assam. These malty, fruity and intense summer-harvested teas are blend with a spiced Kenyan black tea to provide a distinguished and robust cup suitable for any time of day.

2nd Flush Assam TGFOP1

A summer-harvested black tea from Langharjan Estate in Assam, India.
A rich golden liquor, a well-rounded and malty breakfast tea which is lively and intense.

London Strand Earl Grey

A citrus twist on the classic Earl Grey, Keemun black tea from China.
Vibrant with zesty lemon and rich bergamot blended with a smooth black tea to ease the palate.

2nd Flush Single Estate Darjeeling

A glorious summer black tea from the prized Chamong Estate in the foothills of the Himalayas.
Tawny and bright, with an intense but sweet aroma and lingering fruity after tones, a champagne of teas.

Long Jing

One of China's Ten Great Teas, a roasted and pan-fired green tea from the southeastern Zhejiang Province.
Pale yellow liquor provides sweet, strawberry notes that give way to a roasted popcorn flavour.

Grey Dragon Oolong

An incredibly unique Dewata Estate oolong, made from only the youngest, freshest buds of this West Javan tea.
Silver needle white meets aromatic oolong as a clear amber liquor with refreshing, peachy flavours, smooth and silky.

Golden Monkey

Hunan Province, China supplies this fabulous black tea, young golden buds mixed with twisted, darker leaves.
A beautiful, bright amber, full of sweet and fruity notes with just a hint of roasted smoke.

Lemongrass and Peppermint

Uniquely fragrant lemongrass blends with fresh peppermint to provide an uplifting, caffeine free, infusion.
Soft, sweet citrus flavours with subtle minty notes that embolden a relaxing fragrance.
